

"Change the charges against Murray" – Justice for Michael Jackson

February 17th 2010

Brian Oxman, lawyer of Joe Jackson and legal consultant of the King of Pop for 23 years, together with Kathryn Milofsky, who works with Brian Oxman on some important projects for the defence of Michael Jackson, have been overwhelmed by the huge support showed by the fans who took place to the first Official Convention of the King of Pop, last Sunday in Milan.

After the convention, organised by Legend Music Awards and MJPortal, Brian talked at the phone to Joe Jackson, Michael's father. Joe was really impressed by the fact that so many people were ready to support the campaign for aggravating the charges against Dr. Conrad Murray, guilty of his son's death. All that gave Joe a great interior strength for going on in his personal battle and obtaining justice for Michael. Joe personally thanks all of you for the support and your prayers for his family.

"It was really great to talk with all fans on Sunday in Milan, to listen to their personal stories on Michael and also to understand your points of view", Oxman said. We launched the "Campaign to Change the Charges" at your event and all fans must commit in this important project so that Michael can have justice.

Oxman is persuaded, as we all, that the charges against Murray must be changed to "Second degree murder" for the negligence that the doctor showed and for the lack of concern for human life.

We want Justice. The life of Michael Jackson has not been respected!

Please call the prosecuting attorney of L.A. Steve Cooley (Phone 001.213.974.3512) or e-mail him at scooley@da.lacounty.gov to ask that the charges against Dr. Murray will become more serious.
